

I am strongly opposed to allowing cellular telephone use aboard airborne aircraft. It seems to me that planes and airport lobbies are uncomfortable enough as it is--can't we have some peace and quiet anywhere any more?